

Mrs. Frenita Griffin is the conductor of the George Washington High School Orchestra and strings teacher for Bonner and Westwood Middle schools..

Frenita is a native of Danville. She began playing cello in the 5th grade and held various positions in the high school orchestra and was principal cellist and GWHS Orchestra president.

Mrs. Griffin went on to earn a Bachelor of Music Education and a Bachelor of Art in Philosophy and Religion from James Madison University. She completed her Master of Music from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Aside from cello, Mrs. Griffin has been playing piano since the age of eight. Frenita was named Teacher of the Year for both GW and the Danville Public Schools District. In addition to the orchestra, she also serves as adviser to the National Honor Society.

